BOSTON ALUMNI TO HOLD RALLY NOV. 9

Football Squad and Band to Be Guests at Banquet.

F. L. ("Ted") Fish '16, President of the Boston District, is making arrangements for a big Rally Banquet to be held at the Hotel Vendome in Boston the night before the Tufts—Middlebury football game. Mr. Fish has sent notices through the Alumni office at the college to several hundred New England Alumni and is making plans for a large crowd at the Rally Banquet.

Any Middlebury people who are interested to attend, but who for many reason have not received Mr. Fish's notice, should get in touch with him at the following address: Frederick L. Fish, 11 Hurd Road, Belmont, Massachusetts.

Mr. Fish's letter giving the arrangements in detail is as follows:

Frederick L. Fish, Pres. Boston Dist.
11 Hurd Road, Belmont, Mass.
October 26, 1928

To Alumni:

Middlebury plays Tufts at Tufts Oval on Saturday, November 10 You'll not want to miss the game for, win or lose, we must show the boys that the Boston alumni are back of the football team.

Many of your old friends will be at the game, too, but the best time to renew old acquaintances and live over college days will be the night before the game at the Rally Banquet, Hotel Vendome, Boston, Friday night, November 9, 7 p. m. Tickets $2.50 each (Hotel Vendome is at Copley Square corner Commonwealth Avenue and Dartmouth Street. Take any car from Park Street to Copley Square).

It will be like spending an evening back at college. There will be a good feed, music by the College Band, under the direction of J. F. Lechnyr, and songs and cheers between courses will be led by students. To wind up the festivities there will an informal dance with music by the college band orchestra.

Prof. Swett, "Cap" Wiley, '13 and Coach Beck, who is new at Middlebury this year, will speak. Ray Stevens, '09, one of "Pick" Fisher's running mates, will tell us how they played football 20 years ago and "Speed" Howe, '29, President of the Uudergraduate Organization, will give us a glimpse of the college of today.

The boys in the band say they are coming to the game if they have to sleep in the freight yards. But the fact is, their coming in contingent on our providing a place for them to bunk while in Boston and we ought to be able to billet them around among the alumni while they are here. Middlebury boasts one of the best college bands in New England

The Campus Celebrates Its Ninety-Eigth Anniversary

The MIDDLBEURY CAMPUS is this week celebrating its 98th birthday.

Although "founded in 1830" the complete files of the MIDDLEBURY CAMPUS do not include the full 100 volumes which the above phrase would indicate. The CAMPUS was "formerly the Uudergraduate" but the latter publication has the perhaps unique distinction of having two issues numbered "Volume 1 number 1" between the publishing of which there elapsed some 45 years.

The first issue of Volume 1, number 1 was published October 28, 1830. It included an introduction (quoted with credit in the second issue of volume 1, number 1) a short history of Middlebury College, a poem entitlet "To the Polar Star" and several other articles and poems of similar nature.

There were also several news items of a very cosmopolitan scope—including news from Europe, South America and New York City. The latter item was to the effect that that in the census of 1830 that city had gathered together the population of 200,942. Boston was credited with 61,000 and Middlebury boasted a population of 3387. Only occasionally, and then only as a last resort for filler is there any mention of Middlebury undergraduates although several short stories and even a continued story are given space in this first volume of the UNDERGRADUATE.

In the spring of the next year (1831) the UNDERGRADUATE ceased publication. No where is any reference made to the identity of its editor or editors. The only clew consists of the name "Blanchard" written

SECOND NIGHT OF ONE ACTS THURSDAY

"A Night At An Inn" and "Goodnight" To Be Given.

Thursday evening the two plays "A Night in an Inn" by Lord Dunsany and "Goodnight" by Marion Spencer Smith will be produced at the Playhouse. Miss Margaret Lackie is the director of "A Night in an Inn" and Miss Elizabeth McDermott is directing "Good Night".

"A Night in an Inn" is one of Dunsany's best plays even though he is reputed to have written it in four hours. It is a gruesome and uncanny play which seven of the eight characters fail to survive. It deals with the supernatureal in a way which Dunsany alone can create.

Dick Amerman '31 plays the Toff, William Wheatly '30, Sniggers; Phil Bates '31, Elbert; Vernet Kellar, The Idol; E. Parker Calvert, Mitthers; and M. H. Montgomery '31, Thomas Heney '30, and Marshall W. Phinney '32; the three priests. Miss Lackie is directing the play. Leonard Riccio is building an excellent set designed by Raymond Bosworth and painted by the women members of the primary class of the Wig and Pen.

"Good Night" is a frothy play full of the humor that sophisticated undergraduates get from watching two younger people in the throes of calf love. It is very reminiscent of high school days. Robert N. Peary '32 is the youth, Bernice Sargent '30 the girl and Wm. Hagar '32 is papa's voice off stage. Miss McDermott is directing the play and Raymond Bosworth is designing and executing the background.

HOOVER STRAW VOTE LANDSLIDE IN 1104 AMERICAN COLLEGES

In the first American college straw vote ever taken by College Humor magazine and the college dailies Hoover received a two to one vote.

At the September registration this year there were 892,808 students and 348,123 women. This army of young voters (most of whom had never had any experience at the polls) have been termed by Democrats and Depublicans as the hope of America. The two parties should be interested in figures obtained.

Analysis of the vote showed that Herbert Hoover had the majority of students votes in thirty-eight states and the District of Columbia. Alfred E. Smith carried ten states: Virginia, Maryland, North Carolina, South Carolina, Georgia, Florida, Alabama, Mississippi, Louisiana and Texas.

Dividing the country into zones, every one of the following eastern states voted for Hoover, Maine, New Hampshire, Vermont, Massachusetts, Rhode Island, Connecticut, New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, and Delaware. The largest vote for him was in Connecticut, nine to one. Smith made his best showing in New York, where the vote ran nine to five for Hoover. The total votes in the eastern states gave Hoover a three to one majority.

In the southern states, Smith carried every state with the exception of West Virginia, Kentucky, Tennessee, Oklahoma, Arkansas and the District of Columbia.

Of the central states, Hoover carried every one of them. The west-central states (North Dakota, South Dakota, Minnesota, Missouri, Nebraska and Kansas) all went Republican by a total vote of three to one.

Hoover carried every western state (Montana, Idaho, Wyoming, Utah,

NORWICH SCORES TWO TOUCHDOWNS IN FIRST QUARTER TO DEFEAT PANTHER 13-6 IN FIRST STATE SERIES GAME

Cadets' Much Vaunted Aerial Attack Bottled Up Only After Damage is Done.

NORWICH DEFENSE TIGHT IN PINCHES

Middlebury Unable To Take Advantage of Numerous Scoring Chances.

By Ward S. Yunker.

A fighting Panther eleven hammered away at a thin line of maroon clad Cadets Saturday at Northfield, but the always elusive victory slipped through their fingers when they could not produce the final punch to put over a touchdown when inside the 20 yard line. Norwich slammed over two touchdowns and kicked one goal in the first 6 minutes before Middlebury got started. With the "Horsemen" leading 13 to 0, things did not look so bright, but from the middle of the first quarter to the end of the game, the Blue and White held the upper hand, but could score only once, the game ending with Norwich on the long end of a 13 to 6 count.

Middlbury owes its defeat to the lack of a final punch for as early as the first period, the pigskin, was on Norwich's 11 yard line, first down, but the attack petered out and Norwich got the ball on her own 20 yard line when Huntington's attempt at a goal from the field was low. Again in the second period Middlebury had first down on the Norwich 19 yard line, but could go no farther. A penalty against the Cadets gave Middlebury first down on the Norwich 14 yard line in the final quarter, but once again the attack failed and the last scoring chance was gone.

Norwich scored in the first five minutes when three passes, O'Donnell to Coane, mingled with two end runs by Kane, put over a touchdown from the Norwich 30 yard line. O'Donnell's try for the extra point was wide. A few seconds later, the Cadet cheering section went wild when Kane scurried through the entire Middlebury team for 44 yards and a touchdown.

When Kane started his mad dash up the field it seemed hardly possible that he could ever make it, but after slashing through the line, he raced for the sidelines where it seemed as though he was trapped by the Blue hordes around him. Eluding this tackler and straight arming that tackler, the little Norwich half-

FRATERNITIES.

You who are about to choose a fraternity have had over a month to make your choice and during that time have been observing the girls of each society, you probably have your decision in mind, or at least you know to which group you think you are best suited. Do not let last minute appeals from fraternity girls or from other freshmen, in these last hectic days sway the decision you have made quietly by yourself. Joining a fraternity does not mean that you are confining your college friends to one particular group. In Middlebury more than almost anywhere elese there is friendship between girls of different fraternities. Look around you and you will see that this is true. Your very best friend in your college life may be a girl of another fraternity.

If you are undecided now, wait, it is far better to wait and go where you know you will be happy than to be swept into a group that you like, but are not sure that it is the one you want. Above all do not go any fraternity because of one girl. If that girl is really your friend it will make no difference to either of you that you are not in the same fraternity. Pick the group that have the interests you have and with whom you can best cooperate.

This is not the only time to be pledged to a fraternity so if you are undecided, or are not getting the "rush" you want do not decide now. It is no disgrace to wait and if that will influence your happiness do not be afraid to stay out. —C. B.

MERCENARIES?

This may be an age of specialization and division of labor but it is carrying things too far when students are more willing to hire a picked bunch to do their cheering for them than they are to do that cheering themselves. The band played its part well as usual and supported the team at Norwich with practically continuous cheering but the other students at the game seemed to think that their part ended Thursday morning when they paid their quarter to send the band to Norwich.

Last week the Vermont Cynic speaking editorially of the lack of spirit and fight in the Catamount team used the Middlebury eleven, fighting against Springfield, as an example of a team that fought a game through to the finish whatever the breaks might be. Had the writer of that editorial been at Norwich Saturday he could hardly have said the same thing about the Middlebury cheering section.

Norwich made two touchdowns in the first few minutes of play and the visiting rooters scattered all over the stands took defeat for granted and quit on the job. Did the team quit? As the above mentioned editorial so aptly put it, "I'll say she didn't."

Home games do not seem to offer the problem of finding seats together and maintaining a more or less continued encouragement to the players but in less than two weeks we play Tufts at Medford. Except for the Vermont game at Centennial Field on alternate years this game has the biggest undergraduate and alumni attendance of any out of town game. But if there is no more cooperation and planning than at the Norwich contest the stands at Medford will offer even greater facilities for getting as far as possible from any other Middlebury man than those at Northfield.

The band will be there and is paying its own expenses. Let's support it with our presence nearby this time instead of with our money and let's support the team collectively and continuously whatever and whenever the breaks.

BIGOTRY.

It won't be long now. The day on which the American people make their choice will be at hand next Tuesday. We have not seen many presidential campaigns, but it seems that the present one is exciting more interest, more concern, more feeling of responsibility than in many years. Is our student body taking it seriously? Does it understand the gravity of the campaign? In other words, is it prepared to use its head to good advantage on election day? We have our hopes.

And yet it would not be difficult to imagine that many a voter's head is filled with mush, as regards the political situation, Reams of copy, geysers of words and the spouting of the demagogues have so confused the average mind that many are left with instinct alone. That is not so bad as it sounds, as the natural impulse often proves superior in judgement to rationality, particularly in politics. (We might almost say that politicians try to induce this state of mind.) But there is one aspect of the present struggle, fundamental to the candidates' attitudes, which every voter should try to keep in mind. Religious stuff, if we might call it such, the discussion of which may prove of some interest.

The country hears Governor Smith say so much anent the "bigotry, intolerence and misrepresentation" of his opponent, that one is inclined to wonder if he is trying to lose the contest by himself. The governor of New York is mentioned by his managers as a charming man of unusual political intelligence, and one who can bring prosperity to the country and economic peace to its millions. That he has done so in New York there can be little doubt. But whether he can do so for the country at large is another question, one on which we do have our misgivings. We feel so, particularly on account of his late expressions on the "intolerence" of his opponents. He verily seems to be in the throes of a religious complex of some sort. He has spoken on the "issue" at length, and has brought the attention of the country to Republican "whisperings," the absurdity of which necessitated no denial. Governor Smith has spent his time refuting fools' talk, when he should have been constructing a sane program. What are we to think?

The Republican candidate, on the contrary, has conducted his campaign wisely as regards religion. The personal element has been notably absent from his speeches. Not one has contained thoughts which might be construed as injurious to the religious sensibilities of his opponent. Mr. Hoover has presented a sane, logical, reasonable sort of program which has its appeal to the intelligent. Parts of it are debatable. But few real arguments have been advanced; none that confound him. He has had little to refute, merely many thoughts to explain over again. From a religious point of view, Mr. Hoover is on safe ground. His attitude does not seem to draw much from the opposition save words, and it must be confessed that confusing, almost unintelligible words they are.

From the foregoing, we gather that Governor Smith is up a tree, when he should be running a race. His tender feelings about the "bigotry" of his opponent have evoked no real issue, rather, they have provided diversion for many. His program for the solution of the country's problems has languished in his pursuit of a will o' the wisp. His conduct in this contest is inexplicable, when one considers that he is a seasoned politician. It seems that Governor Smith has violated a primary canon of present day politics: his "bigotry" issue has proved nonexistent and has so recoiled that he has made the country laugh.—R. H. A.

COMMUNICATIONS.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE CAMPUS:

Every man who takes an active interest in politics must at one time or another expect that he will be called a "ward-healer" "boss" or "president-maker". These appelations, however, do not harm the persons reputation in any way, but it rather idolizes him and places him on a pedestal, at which the youngsters gaze in admiration. However if a political manager is accused of a deed which is underhanded or cowardly in the eyes of the public, not only his political reputation but also his social reputation is stained and tarnished.

That is the position that I am in to-day. I have been accused by a reporter of your honorable paper of commiting a dastardly deed. To quote from the CAMPUS, "They (the Purity leaders) were getting along famously when Ribald Lynch called upon the plumbing system and thoroly soaked the Ivory Soap Brothers." I am as innocent of the deed as is Benjamin Franklin.

I have taken an active part in the election of every President since Mark Hanna elected McKinley and my name and reputation has emerged pure and stainless. Now, even my best friends won't tell me that they believe the statement is false. The people have lost faith in me.

Therefore if the Reporter who is author of that fairy story does not publically appologize and retract said statement, I shall sue him for libel and slander.

(Signed)
MANAGER F. RYEBURN LYNCH,
Chief Justice of the Supreme court and Secretary of State.

WAMBA SAYS

Now that the Bunk-All-Bunk supporters have elected their candidate they find that he really is all bunk.

The girls should arrange their rushing parties so that some of our "would be John Gilberts" wouldn't be quite so inconvenienced.

Isn't it strange how many people turn news reporters and cameramen when a football game comes around.

Only six more weeks now and you can have that home cooked meal and that feather bed and all that sort of rot.

He wonders when the new president will start the new schedule of classes and when the trains to Montreal will start running.

About this time of year professors kid themselves into thinking that they have been spreading it rather lightly and as a result everyone spends an enjoyable Christmas vacation trying to catch up. Isn't it funny how psychology works on learned people?

Someone thought the sign "Get your man" was misplaced when he saw it in the men's locker room, he thought it belonged in the women's.

Wouldn't the girls be surprised if they saw some of the pictures and things that adorn the walls of some of the rooms in the men's dormitories.

If you want to be classed with the 400 of Middlebury College you had better go to the first number of the entertainment course series tonight at the McCoullough theatre (ssssh, it's the gym).

Wouldn't it be just like Middlebury to have a holiday on the day of the Tufts game so that none of the students could attend.

Give the boys a hand at Saturday's game. Last year's game was declared "no contest," but from all indications this season's game will not only be a contest but a battle.

ALUMNI HOME COMING DAY NOVEMBER 17

As many Alumni find it impossible to return to college at Commencement the College Alumni Secretaries in several institutions have found it very advantageous to arrange Alumni Home Coming Days during the college year when Alumni can return and find the college in operation, see one of the bigger games of the season, or attend other interesting events as well as renew acquaintance with many of their former college friends.

The plan is to be introduced at Middlebury this year. Saturday, November 17, has been designated as Alumni Home Coming Day. This will give returning Alumni opportunity to attend the big rally in the gymnasium on the evening before the game with Vermont, see the college in operation on the morning of the 17th, and take in the biggest game of the season in the afternoon when Middlebury plays Vermont on Porter Field.

A meeting of the Alumni Council is to be held at 10:30 on the morning of the 17th. The fraternities are planning various functions which will be of interest to their Alumni members, and there will be an informal dance in the McCullough Gymnasium in the evening.

PANTHER CUBS CRASH THROUGH WITH 19-7 VICTORY OVER NORWICH CUBS

Green Outplayed By Blue In Every Period But One.

GOERING, DUQUETTE AND ATTIC STAR

Visitors Score Lone Touchdown In Second Quarter.

The Middlebury Freshmen crashed through to a 19 to 7 victory over the Norwich Freshmen Friday on Porter Field. They uncorked a flashy running attack coupled with some pretty lateral passes which swept the Horsemen off their feet. The Pony boys were completely outplayed except during the second quarter when their line stopped the blue jerseyed backs and when their passes and end runs went for long gains. They scored their only touchdown in this period while the Blue and White team pushed one across in each of the others.

Middlebury scored first early in the game after a steady drive from midfield which made the blue line look good and the backfield look fine. The Frosh, playing fast open football, smashed several plays through the line, worked a smooth lateral pass for ten yards, and in five more plays worked the ball up to the 2 yard line, where Attic went off right tackle for a touchdown. Duquette missed the point.

Norwich's famous aerial game had the home boys badly fooled in the second period. Starting on their own 45 yard line they completed a fifteen yard pass, made ten yards on running plays, then scored their only touchdown on a beautiful thirty yard heave. They took the lead by completing another pass for the extra point.

Middlebury came back in the third quarter. Goering, Attic and Duquette tore off spectacular gains to get in position for Attic's second touchdown. The try for the extra point again failed.

The final score was made in the last period when Goering and Duquette rushed the ball from their 48 to the 8 yard line only to lose it on downs.

Norwich tried two passes which were unsuccessful and drew a five yard penalty. Then after a poor punt the ball went outside on the 8 yard line, giving Middlebury first down with a touchdown to go. On the first play Duquette was held to a tiny gain, on the next he threw himself over the pile of struggling linesmen and landed over the goal line. Duquette then tossed a pass to Goering to make the score 19-7.

With a football game between the University of Washington and the University of Chicago at Chicago next year a certainty, plans are being discussed here toward the advisability of sending the Huskies football squad to the Windy city via airplane, in order to save time missed from classes on the part of the gridders.

According to the most likely plans, half the trip each way would be made by air, and half by rail. (IP).

The Juniors have won from the Seniors 8-5, from the Freshmen 9-5, and from the Sophomores 3-1. The Seniors defeated the class of 1932 10-8, and the Freshmen have one victory, over the Sophomores 5-3, to their credit.

The fall hockey tournament is half over and the class of 1930 stand a fine chance of winning the championship from the class of 1929 who have held it for three consecutive years.

35 YEARS AGO

The fall term of college began yesterday. The freshmen then on the ground numbered 19, and there are more coming. Of those already here, three are ladies.

Don't be a crab now, just because we lost a few games, wait till we get going.

Basketball Rules Committee Makes New Regulations Regarding Dribbling

Basketball officials held their annual conclave in New York City recently for the purpose of revising the rules in preparation for the 1929 season. Most worthy of notice among the alterations was one regarding dribbling, which, while it does not limit the dribble to a single bounce, a change that was advocated by some provides that when a player tries to dribble past an opponent in his pathway, the "greater obligation to avoid contact is upon him."

This change is embodied in a new clause under the head of personal fouls, and reads as follows:

"A player shall not hold, trip, charge or push an opponent whether or not either player has possession of the ball. If a dribbler charges into an opponent, or makes personal contact with an opponent, without an apparent effort to avoid such contact, a personal foul shall be called on the dribbler.

"If despite the dribbler's effort to avoid contact, personal contact ensues, either player, or both, may be guilty; but the greater responsibility is on the dribbler if he tried to dribble by an opponent who is in his path."

Among other changes are provisions designed to penalize "guarding from the rear" by a personal foul, making it illegal for a player to capitalize his great height by tapping the ball and then catching it on two successive jump balls; and stating that an unguarded player may hold the ball indefinitely in the court, but as soon as an opponent takes a position close by "say within a yard of," the player with the ball, the latter must get the ball into play. The new code also makes it clear that a ball striking an official does not become a dead ball.

PANTHER TRACKS

Middlebury found itself too late in last Saturday's game with the Cadets, for, if they had put up the same fight in the very beginning as they did in the last three periods, the Horsemen's record would not be so good. At present we find Norwich has scored 72 points to their opponents 66, while Middlebury has scored 20 points to their opponent's 72, and poor Vermont has scored 6 points to their opponent's 108.

With no serious injuries to the team Middlebury should show a lot of good stuff in this Saturday's game with Hamilton. Hamilton is stronger than they have ever been and Middlebury is coming along at a very rapid rate. McNary and Jacobs will both be available for this week's game, and Bedell who hurt his arm in the Norwich game will also be in condition. Whitman's leg is in fair condition so in all probability he will be able to fill his place, which was so well taken care of by Webber, in Saturday's fray.

The game was injurious to both squads. Whitman, with a sprained ankle and Bedell, with a bunged up elbow, were the Middlebury casualties. Hourin, Norwich's best tackle, will be out the rest of the season with a torn knee. Kane is suffering from a slight concussion of the brain and Canon was severely shaken up.

Until Kane was taken out in a semi-conscious condition, he was the best ground gainer on the field. The Blue and White line and backfield found him harder to stop than it would seem judging by his size. If "Sugar" is in condition, the Vermont line will have a very distasteful afternoon next Saturday.

Waining was nearly as elusive as Kane and gave the Blue and White cheering section many an anxious moment.

Willis showed flashes of his old form. In the second period, with the ball on the Norwich 17 yard line, "Bo" went slam bang through tackle knocking Cadets right and left, and with two of them hanging doggedly on to him, made his way to the 2 yard marker. A stone wall could not have stopped the "red topped one" on that play.

Middlebury made 10 first downs to Norwich's 9, but the Cadets combined 4 of theirs in the first period to give them two touchdowns.

The much talked about Norwich passing combination of O'Donnell to Coane worked well in the first period, but after that it was all "wet." The Cadets have scored 10 touchdowns this season and 6 of these have resulted from the O'Donnell to Coane duo.

Middlebury completed a double pass for a gain of 32 yards and a lateral pass for a 5 yard gain, but the forwards were of no use.

Captain Webber played a good game at center. "Chris" was the Panther's regular center last year, but has devoted his time to an end berth this season.

Guarnaccia's line plunging and sweeps around end were pretty to see and although the "Horsemen" watched him closely, our fleet fullback gained plenty of ground during the course of last Saturday afternoon. The Vermont team is going to find "Sammy" harder to stop than a Mack truck.

The cheering section sounded like a bunch of high school kids. Middlebury sure could take lessons from Norwich in regards to cheering.

Mr. William H. Botsford, '98, of Rutland, and Clarence H. Botsford, '24, of Boston, Mass., attended the Springfield football game in Middlebury last Saturday.

WITH OUR OPPONENTS

By ARTHUR BRUSH

Norwich 13, Middlebury 6.
Conn. Aggies 6, Vermont 0.
Brown 19, Tufts 13.
Columbia 20, Williams 6.
Amherst 20, Wesleyan 20.
New Hampshire 6, Springfield 0.
Hamilton 46, Trinity 0.
Mass. Aggies 0, Worcester 0.

Again Vermont took another defeat, this time by the smallest score so far when the Aggies of Connecticut went to Burlington last Saturday and beat up Rattan's and Tully's aggregation 6-0. Loose playing, and a superior team were the trouble this time, while Vermont on the other hand showed a decided improvement over their playing so far this year. With Macomber back in the game and with Norwich seriously handicapped by last Saturday's injuries the Catamounts have a good chance of doing unheard of things to Norwich this Saturday when they meet on Centennial field. The ends are getting into better shape and Palmer and Robinson should return to their berths for the game.

In the last five minutes of play at Providence last week-end Cornsweet, fast Brown back ran 72 yards for a touchdown and broke the clear record of victories that Tufts has had up to this time. Ellis played his usual stellar game, making one 44 yard scoring run and outpunting his adversaries. Up to the time of the 72 yard run the score stood 13 to 13, and at the end of the first half the Medford team was leading 7 to 6.

In the first game of the "Little Three Championship" race Amherst and Wesleyan played to a 20 to 20 tie. Neither team is up to par this year, according to records, and it looks at the present time as though Williams would have an easy time in cinching the title. The game was one of the best ever seen in the series however, and Wesleyan only averted defeat in the last three minutes of play when after a recovered fumble they managed to get the ball over the line. Grossklos, as usual did all the stellar work for the Amherst team. This man who is only a sophomore in the Lord Jeff institution is turning out to be some football player and it would be a good thing to watch him for a while. Grosskloss made the first score for Amherst on a 75 yard return of a punt.

Unleashing a fine aerial attack Columbia beat the previously undefeated Williams team by 20 to 6, in a game which was hard football from start to finish. At the half the Lions were ahead 7 to 6. Meeting with a stubborn Purple line the Columbia team worked in a lot of lateral and forward passing and scored all three of their goals in this way. For the first time this year the combination of Langmaid and Howe did not work as well as they have, considerably spoiling Williams' chances.

In the third quarter, after going down the field for 70 yards the New Hampshire University team took the Springfield eleven for a 6 to 0 defeat. Regali, full back for N. H. U. made the scoring play on a line plunge after his teammates had carried the ball in spectacular work to the four yard line. Williamson, Springfield captain and quarterback was back in the game for the first time in several weeks.

The Massachusetts Aggies met their old rivals Worcester Tech last Saturday and were unable to score, and for that matter neither could their opponents, the game ending in a 0 to 0 count.

Again Hamilton managed to chalk up another victory, this time against Trinity and by the score of 46 to 0. Hamilton had it all over their opponents in every department of the game, it was more like a practice session than than a real contest, although Trinity was fighting every minute up to the last whistle. Chatfield, captain of the Clinton eleven, was the star of the game, making up for his loose playing of last Saturday against Amherst. At one time he raced down the field with half the Trinity eleven on his heels for 50 yards and a touchdown. Hamilton used practically two teams in the game, saving her material for this week's game with Middlebury on Porter Field. So far this season Hamilton has lost one game, tied one and has won the rest, showing the strongest team in a number of years.

Last year the Middlebury-Hamilton game resulted in a no-contest decision, due to the fact that both teams realized that the apparent Hamilton victory was a referee's mistake and not wishing to make a break in the collegiate relations the officers of both colleges agreed to call off the game. It will be a good fight this Saturday. Both institutions recruit a team from about the same size student body and Middlebury is gradually getting organized for a fine finish.

Our opponents play the following games this week-end:

Hamilton vs. Midd. at Middlebury.
Amherst vs. M. A. C. at Amherst.
Springfield vs. Boston U. at Boston.
Tufts vs. New Hampshire, Medford.
Williams vs. Union at Schenectady.
Vermont vs. Norwich at Burlington.

WOODBURY DEFEATS TENNIS CAPTAIN TO WIN CHAMPIONSHIP

Wins in Straight Sets; Tourney Brings Out New Talent.

Ralph Woodbury '29 seeded number two, won the annual fall tennis tournament by defeating Donald Henderson, '29, captain of tennis and seeded number one, in straight sets 6-3, 6-4, 7-5 on the college courts Monday, October 29.

The courts were in poor condition after the recent heavy rains, and fast play was out of the question. Woodbury's game was suited to the wet ground, his sharp cuts causing the ball to bounce but a few inches. The first two games went to Henderson with the loss of only two points, but after the ball was wet he could do nothing with his opponent's chops. Henderson's overhead game was good, and his returns of volleys and lobs were usually for points. But when he had to play the ball off the ground he made numerous errors. Woodbury's control in keeping the ball down was excellent and finally resulted in his winning the match. Both players were handicapped by the poor conditions underfoot.

The tournament brought to light some excellent material from the freshmen class. Rene Morize, '32, and K. Sloper, '32, showed very good form in their matches, that lead to the belief that they will be material for next year's varsity. Morize eliminated Tommy Sun, '30, seeded number four, in straight sets, while Sloper was able to extend Henderson to the limit in order to win, the score of their last set being 9-7.

Veterans of previous service on the tennis squad played well in the tourney. Humeston, Kelley, Daland and Huntington were up to their game, and most of them went through three rounds before losing.

COLLEGES OF NEW ENGLAND MEET AT UNIV. OF VERMONT

Dean Hazeltine and Prof. Perkins Represent Middlebury.

Professor R. L. Perkins and Dean Burt A. Hasseltine represented Middlebury last week at the seventieth annual meeting of the Association of Colleges of New England. The gathering, which opened Thursday and continued until Friday noon, was held at the University of Vermont in Burlington.

At this informal meeting there were assembled representatives from all of the important men's colleges in New England. The proceedings which take place at these meetings are never published, but discussions are held on all phases of college life. At Burlington curriculum and financial problems were discussed from various angles. Also suggestions and discussions were heard on the improvement of the student in college life.

Many college authorities and especially Dean Hanford of Harvard displayed much interest in the voluntary attendance policy towards upperclassmen as carried on in Middlebury. Harvard College grants unlimited "cuts" to seniors, but there is no college which allows such freedom to its upperclassmen in attending classes as does Middlebury. Other colleges are watching with interest the results which are obtained here from this new system.

The men who attended as representatives of their colleges were: Pres. A. S. Pease, Dean Thomas Esty, of Amherst College; President Daniel Marsh, Dean William Warren, Prof. L. C. Newell, of Boston University; President K. C. Sills, Prof. Stanley Chane, of Bowdoin College; Dean Roland Richardson, Prof. Henry Huntington, of Brown University; Dean Homer Little of Clark University; Dean Craven Laycock, Prof. James McCallum, of Dartmouth College; President A. L. Lowell, Dean Clifford, Dean Alfred Hanford, of Harvard University; Professor Perkins, Dean Hazeltine of Middlebury College; President R. B. Ogilby, Dean T. H. Hood, of Trinity College; Ass. Prof. George Miller of Tufts College; President Guy W. Bailey, Ass. Dean Elijah Swift of the University of Vermont; President James McConnaughy Dean George Howes, of Williams College; Dean Clarence Mendell, Dean Charles Hyde, of Yale University.

RUSHING.

As far as a good part of the corps is concerned fraternity rushing might just as well bestarted right now. Fraternity talk is being indulged in where freshmen are supposed to be listening in; the houses of the absent ones are being criticised; ancient history is being exhumed; and while S. A. E. and Theta Chi are being extolled in one room, Sig Ep and Phi Kap are being boomed in the other.

There has been more pre-season rushing this year than ever before. Naturally there is a little every year, but the present autmun seems to be a record-breaker. Just what causes it is problematical—it may be the excellence of the rook class as far as fraternity material is supposed to count, or it may be that this year's crop of fraternity men are just a little more "interested" in their houses than heretofore.

No one house is indulging in the practice more than another, and it is not being done as a house affair. Each of the houses seem to have certain men who delight in pre-season rushing more than they do in legal rushing. Perhaps they have some of the adventurer's blood that is so popular nowadays, or maybe they feel that they are good Samaritans in that they are guiding the stricken freshmen to the right house.

At any rate these men are surely doing a lot of harm. They don't think so, for they go their ways spreading the gospel of the brotherhoods regardless of whether or not the freshman has some thought and say in the matter himself. And the harm is being done to their houses—that's the ironical part of it. The more pre-rushing that is done by some brother, the lower he goes in the estimation of a freshman who has brains enough to think for himself.

The fraternity presidents realize this and are doing the best they can to restrain the enthusiastic brothers. But they cannot hold back the tide any more than the justly celebrated Canute could. If they enter too much into the discussion they get their feet wet—just as the aforementionad king did.

The remedy for this pre-season boloney slicing must come from the freshmen. If they are to join the houses of their choice and remain free in their minds with the thought that they were not forced or cajoled into their choice they must not pay attention to the rushing acts of the pre-season brethren. They must not "buddy" with them during the approaching vacations if they are going to join a fraternity and still respect themselves as mediums of free-will. The freshman who rejects all offers of a fraternity man now, will be rewarded when the real rushing season is on as he will be marked as a man who knows what he wants and who has the will to stick to his desire.—Norwich Guidon.

Curios for the Museum.

The College is fortunate in the gift of some rare and valuable curios from the Dark Continent. Mr. Charles M. Prynne '76, in 1908, brought with him from British East Africa an unusually fine python skin twenty feet in length, a buffalo skull, some tusks, some rare tribal shields, bows and arrows, spears, swords, musical instruments, water bottles, necklaces, etc., and he has now presented them to the college. They have been placed in the museum in Warner Science Hall and will presently be appropriately labelled and arranged in the cases.

Comparison of Withdrawls For The Last Three Years

From statistics compiled by the Registrar, the enrollment for the last three years shows a greater percentage of withdrawls this year than in the two previous.

1928-29 the number of students who failed to return was 97—16%; the number of students graduated (class of 1928) was 121—18%.

1927-28 the number of students who failed to return to college was 76—12%; the number of students in the graduating class that year was 102—17%.

1926-27 the number of students who dropped out of college was 76—13%; the number of students in the graduating class being 120—20%.

A "wet" is now one who believes in the modification of the Prohibition laws, rather than one in favor of the old saloon.

This, according to Dr. John H. Latane, head of the History department of Johns Hopkins University, who states that wheras he once resented violently to being called a "wet", he now glories in the term.

Dr. Latane declared that he is thankful that he can support Governor Smith, "whose views on prohibition are the same as those of Presidents Roosevelt, Taft and Wilson." Those three Presidents, he said, were all "wets" in the generally accepted sense of the world today. (IP).

Canadian college girls use more rouge than British co-eds, according to a group of English women students who visited the University of Toronto here recently. One of the visitors suggested the situation as being a result of American influence. (IP).

"Not a cough in a Film-ful"
says Norma Talmadge after the Blindfold Test

"When you see my new United Artists' picture, 'The Woman Disputed,' you will notice that I smoke cigarettes in several scenes.

"Not wanting to show partiality to any one of the four leading brands, I decided to make my choice via the blindfold test, which I had heard of many times. Happily, I picked Old Golds.

"I found them smooth, mild and delightfully cool . . . Hereafter, when I am required to smoke I shall naturally insist on Old Golds. There's not a cough in a film-ful!"

NORWICH DEFEATS PANTHER BY 13 TO 6

Norwich nearly scored again when in the second period Waining ran around his left end, cut back by the Blue and White secondary defense and outraced the safety man for a 62 yard run and a score. The joy of the Norwich rooting section was cut short however as the little quarterback had stepped out of bounds at the 47 yard line and so Middlebury was saved from that score.

Waining and Kane made gain after gain in the first half as the Blue and White failed miserably in trying to tackle Norwich's flying backs. The passing combination of O'Donnell to Coane worked excellently at first, but the Blue and White secondary defense smashed up the overhead after the damage had been done in the first period.

The Panther backs smashed and hammered at the Cadet line, making gain after gain, but when yardage was needed inside the Norwich 20 yard line, it was not forthcoming. The Blue and White aerial attack failed miserably as only one forward pass was completed out of 18 attempts, and this pass gained not even one yard. Although supreme on the ground, Middlebury had to yield to the Cadets' deceptive forward passing game which netted 84 yards and a score.

The air route proved damaging to the "Horsemen" in the second quarter however, as Johnson intercepted one of O'Donnell's heaves on Middlebury's 41 yard line and raced to the Norwich 17 yard line before being tackled by O'Donnell himself. Willis then showed some of his old time form as he slammed through tackle and dragging two Cadet tacklers with him made his way 15 yards for a first down on the Norwich 2 yard marker. Guarnaccia went around end for a touchdown, scoring Middlebury's only points of the game. Willis' attempt at the extra point was wide.

The third period was devoted to a punting dual with Huntington having the better of the argument with Coane.

Two penalties against Norwich in the fourth quarter, one of 15 yards for tackling out of bounds and the other half the distance to the goal line for slugging, gave Middlebury first down on the Cadets' 14 yard line. The Panther cheering section called for a touchdown, but the Norwich defense piled up the Blue and White attack and the Cadets took the ball on downs on the 9 yard line. Once more victory had slipped through the fingers of the Middlebury eleven as a few minutes later the game ended.

First Period.

O'Donnell kicked off for Norwich to the Middlebury 30 yard line. Guarnaccia made 18 yards around end on the first play. Guarnaccia lost 2 yards. Willis lost 2 yards more. Middlebury was offside and penalized 5 yards. Huntington kicked to Kane who ran the ball back 12 yards to the Norwich 30 yard line. On the first play O'Donnell threw a pass to Coane for a 30 yard gain. Another pass, O'Donnell to Coane, put the ball on the Blue and White 20 yard line. Kane made 6 yards around right end. Kane made 5 yards and first down. Kane was held for no gain on the next play, but O'Donnell dropped back and heaved a pass to Coane for a touchdown. O'Donnell's try for the extra point was wide. Guarnaccia ran O'Donnell's kick off from the 15 to the 31 yard line. McLeod made 2 yards off tackle. Willis made 2 more at the same place. Johnson lost 5 yards. Huntington punted badly, the ball going out of bounds at the Middlebury 41 yard line. A Norwich forward was incomplete and Norwich was penalized 5 yards for having the backfield in motion before ball was snapped. Kane ran around his left end for a touchdown from the 44 yard line. O'Donnell kicked goal. Kane ran Huntington's kick off 14 yards to the Norwich 33 yard line. No gain on first play and Norwich penalized 5 yards for backs in motion. Waining went around end for 10 yards, but fumbled, Valois recovering for Middlebury on the Norwich 48 yard line. Guarnaccia made 6 yards in 2 plays. McLeod went around end for a first down on the Norwich 27 yard line. Willis made 8 yards on 2 plays and a 5 yard penalty for being offside gave the Panther first down on the Norwich 14 yard line. Guarnaccia lost 2 yards. Fumble was recovered by Willis for loss of 8 yards. Forward pass was incomplete. Huntington's attempt at a field goal was low and it was Norwich's ball on their own 20 yard line. Kane made 15 yards around end. O'Donnell was thrown for 12 yard loss. He was thrown for a loss of 15 yards more. Coane punted to Johnson who ran the ball from the Norwich 40 yard line to the 33. McLeod made 2 yards at the end as period ended. Score: Norwich 13, Middlebury 0.

Second Period.

McLeod made no ground and two passes were grounded and Norwich got the ball on downs on her 31 yard line. Kane made 4 yards and Waining 2. Johnson intercepted a pass from O'Donnell on the Middlebury 41 yard line and ran to the Norwich 17 yard line before being tackled. Willis cracked line for 15 yards. Guarnaccia went around end for a touchdown. Willis' try for extra point was wide. McLeod kicked short onside boot which Johnson grabbed and ran to Norwich 31 yard line. McLeod made 5 yards. Guarnaccia made a first down on the Norwich 19 yard line. Willis made 2 yards in 2 plays. 2 passes were grounded to give Norwich the ball on downs on her own 17 yard line. Coane punted to midfield. Guarnaccia made no gain. Willis made 5 yards off tackle. Pass was incomplete. Willis booted to 10 yard line, downed by Valois. Coane punted to Norwich 38 yard line. McLeod made no ground. Johnson dropped a forward pass. Willis scooted around right end for 11 yards and first down. Guarnaccia made no gain. McLeod made 6 yards. Pass grounded. Pass grounded in end zone, Norwich's ball on her own 20 yard line. Waining made 5 yards around end. Kane eluded Blue tacklers and made 12 yards. Waining made 10 yards more on an end run. Norwich penalized 5 yards for extra overtime. Line plays made 2 yards and a forward pass, O'Donnell to Pennell, made 9 more. Coane punted outside on the Middlebury 33 yard line. Guarnaccia made 14 yards and first down. McLeod made 1 yard. Willis made 1 yard as half ended. Score: Norwich 13, Middlebury 6.

Third Period.

Huntington kicked off to Kane who caught the ball on the Norwich 21 yard line and ran it back to the Middlebury 43 yard line. Waining made 5 yards. Kane lost 5 yards. Kane made 5 yards. Waining made very little ground and it was Middlebury's ball on her own 41 yard line. Middlebury was peralized 15 yards for holding. Huntington booted to the Norwich 25 yard line from where Kane ran to the 36. 2 passes were batted down and Norwich was penalized 5 yards for incomplete passes in succession. Another pass was incomplete and Coane punted to the Middlebury 39 yard line. No gain on 2 line plays and Huntington punted to the Norwich 39 yard line. Huntington sifted through and stopped Kane for a loss of 10 yards. Pass incomplete. Coane punted to Blue 43 yard line. 2 line plays netted 3 yards. Pass incomplete. Huntington punted to Kane who ran the ball back from Norwich's 18 to 25 yard line. Waining made 4 yards but Norwich was penalized 15 yards for holding. Coane punted to Norwich 36 yard line. McLeod made 1 yard. Guarnaccia made 4 yards through tackle. Willis was stopped. Willis punted outside on the Norwich 24 yard line. Kane lost 1 yard and then made 4 yards through tackle. Huntington punted to the Norwich 34 yard line as the quarter closed. Score: Norwich, 13, Middlebury 6.

Fourth Period.

Kane lost 1 yard. Willis intercepted a Norwich forward on the Cadets' 4 yard line. 2 line plays netted no gain. O'Donnell intercepted a Blue pass on the Norwich 42 yard line. Kane made 6 yards around end, but Norwich was penalized 5 yards for extra time out. Waining made 3 yards. Coane punted to the Middlebury 20 yard line. 2 line plays netted 1 yard. A double pass, Willis to Johnson to Guarnaccia, netted 32 yards and it was first down on Norwich's 47 yard line. Norwich was penalized 5 yards for extra time out. Guarnaccia lost 3 yards. Pass, Willis to Johnson netted no gain. Pass grounded. Huntington punted to the Norwich 16 yard line. Coane punted to his own 47 yard line. Norwich was penalized 15 yards for tackling out of bounds. Guarnaccia made 2 yards and when Coane was caught slugging, Norwich was penalized half the distance to the goal line which gave the Blue a first down on the Norwich 14 yard line. Guarnaccia lost 3 yards. Guarnaccia made 2 yards. Pass was incomplete and it was Norwich's ball on downs on her own 9 yard line. Coane punted to the Norwich 48 yard line. 2 passes were incomplete which netted a 5 yard penalty. Smith made no gain. Huntington punted to Waining who ran the ball from Norwich 27 yard line to the 42. Waining made first down in two end runs. Waining made 5 yards more and a 5 yard penalty against Middlebury for extra time out gave Norwich another first down. Middlebury recovered a Norwich fumble on the Blue 32 yard line. 2 line plays netted nothing. O'Donnell intercepted a Blue pass on the Middlebury 32 yard line. 2 line plays netted the Cadets 2 yards Coane kicked out of bounds on the Middlebury 17 yard line. Waining intercepted a Middlebury pass on the Blue 27 yard line as the game ended. Score: Norwich 13, Middlebury 6.

WILLIAMS HARRIERS DEFEAT MIDDLEBURY IN OPENING MEET

Strong Rensselaer Team Is Foe This Week.

The Williams Cross Country team defeated the Blue and White runners by the score of 20-35 in the first varsity meet of the season here Saturday morning. Goodbody and Guernsey, coming to the tape in a tie for first place, led Capt. Butler of the varsity by a good hundred yards to help the rest of their teammates carry the honors away from the Middlebury harriers.

Capt. Butler led at the start, and was still leading when the two teams pounded up the first hill. Goodbody and Guernsey were close at his heels, with the others of both teams bunched quite well behind them. The weather was almost ideal for cross-country running, there being hardly any wind, and the air was brisk enough to encourage the best efforts from all the runners. And a few rooters who thought they could afford a Chapel-cut to cheer the team on were there at the start. There was a small crowd at the finish line to applaud both teams as they came in.

Guernsey, Goodbody and Butler, who finished with the same steady pace with which they started, were followed by Moore of Williams. Dalton, who was running contrary to doctor's orders was the second Middlebury man to cross the tape, and fifth in the race. The next four places went to Williams. Haskins of the Panthers crossed the line in tenth place, leading the rest of the home team. Witt and Farnham finished in a tie for eleventh place, with McKee and Session taking the last two places.

The Williams' win evened the defeat they suffered two years ago on this course. Williams has already run and beaten Hamilton by the score of 17-38. They lost, however, to R. P. I. by a 25-30 score. Although beaten, the Middlebury runners made much better time than did the team of two years ago. The time was 33:15, as compared with 35:27 of the previous meeting on the home course.

Middlebury will go to Troy this week-end to meet the strong R. P. I. hill and dale aggregation.

JUSTICE F. LYNCH TO SUE FOR LIBEL

Denies Any Connection With Political Scandal.

In a recent interview by a CAMPUS reporter Chief Justice Lynch maintained that he had been in no way connected with the political outrage of October twentieth. "I merely happened by chance to be present on the scene when the water descended upon its victims. I was in no way at all responsible for the crime and in no way sympathised with the perpetrators. I resent the accusation in the October 24 CAMPUS and will take all measures to have the paper retract its statements and have the reporter make a public apology. If this is not done I shall sue them for libel and attempted defamation of character. The cognomen "Ribald" before the dignified name, Lynch, must also be retracted." Having said these words Mr. Lynch perspired gently and resumed his seat.

Of course Mr. Lynch has not been able to produce any witnesses to prove any of the statements or to disapprove any of the circumstantial evidence on which he was accused. He even admits putting his head out of the window and cheering immediately after the perpetration of the outrage. If this was not encouraging the criminals or at least acclaiming them as having done a noble deed, what could it be called?

During the interview Mr. Lynch never once denied that he threw the waste can out of the window. President Gazdugh was also present at the time of the crime and in no way attempted to interfere with the proceedings. One wonders how much he was responsible for the entire affair.

CAMPUS CELEBRATES 98TH ANNIVERSARY

in longhand at the end of the first editorial column. Jonathan Blanchard graduated in 1832 and became president of Knox college where he served for 15 years and later president of Wheaton college which position he held for 20 years. He married and had twelve children. It is doubtful if any editor since (if Mr. Blanchard was the editor of the UNDERGRADUATE) has been any more successful, either educationally or socially.

The next issue of the UNDERGRADUATE appeared in March, 1876 with William W. Gay '76 as its editor. The paper was not radically different in content and form from its predecessor and namesake. It was issued regularly several times a year until the spring of 1899.

Mr. Gay, its first editor was associated with the Springfield Republican, the Chicago Tribune, the Chicago Times and was editor of the New York World from 1891 to 1898.

Henry W. Hulbert '79, another editor, wrote a number of books dealing with various phases of religion. James C. Harvey '81, was assistant editor of St. Nicholas Magazine for a time and wrote several books. Frank D. Boynton '91 was president of the New York state teachers association and is author of School Civics, Actual Government of New York, and other textbooks and magazine articles. Guy B. Horton '00, the last editor wrote several books dealing with Vermont history.

THE MIDDLEBURY CAMPUS proper had its beginning in a quarterly magazine similar to the UNDERGRADUATE in content except that it dealt more with local activities and had fewer literary articles. The first issue appeared in February, 1905 under the guidance of Professor C. B. Wright and David C. Cadwell, '05 and under the editorship of Charles Smiddy. In 1913 the magazine form and content was discarded and in its place there was issued bi-weekly a 4-column, 4-page newspaper. In 1922, under the direction of D. Hayden Parry '24 this was enlarged making the page size the same as it is at present. It was also issued once a week instead of once in two weeks. In the fall of 1927 an insert was added making the paper a six-page issue.

There are no records recent enough to show to what degree the editors of the CAMPUS have followed in the footsteps of their predecessors but it it not improbable that when such records are compiled they will show the same percentage of men who have advanced far in literary and other lines on the basis of training received as editor-in-chief of the MIDDLEBURY CAMPUS.

The Campus circulation has now increased to 1146 paid subscriptions. Each week the paper is sent to every state in the Union with the exception of New Mexico, Idaho, Arizona, Colorado and Wymoing. Readers of the CAMPUS are also located in Alaska, Hawaiian Islands, Japan, China, India, France and England. Many small colleges do not have the opportunity of having readers in so many foreign countries. The present policy of the Campus Board is to extend the circulation among more of the Alumni, in this way, allowing the readers to keep in close contact with the current activities at Middlebury College.

HOOVER LANDSLIDE IN COLLEGE VOTE

Colorado, Arizona, Nevada, New Mexico, Washington, Oregon and California).

Virginia cast the greatest number of individual votes for Smith, and Pennsylvania the most votes for Hoover. The largest percentage in any one college was twenty to one for Smith in Mount St. Mary's College, Emmitsburg, Maryland. The largest percentage for Hoover in any one college was eighteen to one at Wheaton College, Wheaton, Illinois.

Will Rogers obtained one-half of one percent of the total student vote. The following was received from the St. John's Collegiate, Annapolis, Maryland: "Hoover 128, Smtih 120, Texas Guinan 2, Students dry and faculty all wet."
